

CALL FOR PROJECTS: WORKS IN PROGRESS FOR BLACK NIGHTS GOES TO CANNES
APPLICATION DEADLINE MAY 12TH

Date and time of the event:

Market screening – a slot of 110’ – Palais K (147 seats)* on Saturday 10th July, 2021 from 2.15 pm to 4.15 pm and the Online Market screening during the same day / one day after

We are looking for:

- Full-length fiction film in post-production with potential for the international market, looking for a sales agent;
- Projects from all around the world, with no genre restrictions
- Only scenes from the film with English subtitles (1-3 scenes, up to 15-20 minutes altogether) can be presented at the Works in Progress sessions. We do not accept teasers, trailers or promo reels.

Submission materials

1. Credits and country/countries of production
2. Genre
3. Up to 20 minutes of the film for the evaluation, please keep in mind if the project is selected we can accept 10-15 minutes clip
4. Long synopsis (max 800 characters with spaces) and short synopsis (250 characters spaces excluded) in English
5. Short biography/filmography of the director (400 characters with spaces)
6. Filmography of the producer and production company profile (400 characters with spaces)
7. Contact details
8. The estimated delivery date of the film
9. 2 photos or stills from the film (resolution 300 dpi, landscape format) for the flyer
10. Director and producer photos

Send your submissions via e-mail to triin.tramberg@poff.ee with the subject line PROJECT NAME_Black Nights Goes to Cannes 2021. Please include all the project information in one pdf and submit all photos via dropbox/google drive by May, 12 2021.

Before submitting, please note that the fee for participation is 500 euros per project. The fee includes one market badge per project, in collaboration with Marché du Film communication and promotion of selected projects in the Marché du Film and Black Nights Film Festival websites, newsletters, social media and press releases.

Please indicate when submitting if the project representative can travel to Cannes or will only take part online.

For more information about project submissions please contact triin.tramberg@poff.ee.